

Van-Shaped Seed Bombs

A UNIQUE WAY TO DELIVER YOUR BRAND AND KEEP IT ON THE ROAD.

SUMMARY	Drive your brand forward with our van-shaped seed bombs. Ideal for businesses in transport, delivery, or any sector that's always on the move. Each set of three brings fun and uniqueness to your promotion, all while highlighting your commitment to the environment. Packed with native British wildflowers, each effortlessly transforms into a vibrant floral display.
PRODUCT DETAILS	Sustainably Made Our seed bombs are as fresh as they come, filled with wildflowers that we grow and harvest on site. Packaged in a FSC® certified matchbox from a local supplier, each seed bomb contains just wildflower seeds and clay and can be used for up to a year when stored in a cool, dry place. No garden? No problem! Our van shaped seed bombs come packed with native British wildflowers like Poppy, Cornflower, and Red Campion, making them ideal for both pots and garden beds. So, whether you live in a flat, a house, or you're planning a move to Mars, you're good to go. No green thumb required, simply plant, water and grow. Branded for your business A 75x80mm recyclable label, showcasing your brand or message, is printed digitally in full colour. This wraps around 3 faces of the matchbox, making every seed bomb a lasting reflection of your commitment to quality, sustainability and the environment. Matchbox Measurements: 85 X 55 X 20mm (suitable for large letter shipping) Branding Area: 75 x 80mm Due to the natural materials in our seed bombs, dust may settle on the label in transit. It's simple to remove with a quick brush or blow.
