

Van Shaped Seed Bomb Tin

A TIN FILLED WITH A VAN-SHAPED SEED BOMB. JUST PLANT AND LET WILDFLOWERS GROW.

SUMMARY	A promotional product designed for brands on the move. Inside this tin is a van-shaped seed bomb, packed with native wildflower seeds. A great choice for logistics, transport, and delivery companies, it's a giveaway that carries real value. The tin is reusable and recyclable, with a full-colour printed label to keep your branding in sight.
PRODUCT DETAILS	A practical and memorable branded gift. The Van Seed Bomb Tin contains a single van-shaped seed bomb, handmade in Britain and designed to sprout into wildflowers. Whether used for fleet marketing, courier promotions, or industry events, it's a standout product that helps your brand stay visible. The aluminium tin is 55mm in diameter and 20mm high, making it a convenient size for giveaways and direct mail. The screw-top lid keeps the contents secure, while the 51mm full-colour printed label provides a premium branding opportunity. Unlike disposable packaging, the tin can be reused or recycled, adding extra sustainability benefits. Each tin includes simple planting instructions to ensure recipients can grow their wildflowers easily.
